"Denver" Ed. Smith

Boxes on Hawaii

Hilo, May 29.—There was a boxing entertainment at Keanu last Tuesday night on the same general plan as the one at Spreckels' Hall the week before. Denver Ed Smith met one man and had a six-round set-to for points. The same Japanese wrestled, but the result was bad for the contestants, one of them breaking an arm and the other an ankle. The receipts at the door were not large. Friday Mr. Smith and his manager, went overland to Mahukona, and Smith was to give exhibitions along the coast.—Herald.

HILO'S COTILLON CLUB.

Hilo, May 29.—Members of the Cotillon Club met last Friday night for the purpose of holding their annual election of officers. T. C. Ridgway declined to serve and Mrs. R. H. Reid was elected in his place. Mrs. H. T. Elliot was elected to succeed Mrs. W. T. Harding as secretary. A. C. McKenney was elected treasurer. The new executive committee is: Mrs. L. M. Whitehouse, Miss Lilline Hapal, Miss Frank Eaton and W. S. McLean.—Herald.

BORN.

DEVERILL.—In Hanalei, May 29, 1902, to the wife of W. R. Deverill, a daughter.

THOMAS MCTIGHE IS LIQUID ARTIST

Thomas McTighe is an artist when it comes to entertaining. With hundreds of people calling in at his new saloon, the Progress, corner of Maunakea and King streets, he still saw personally to every one and gave them, as has always been his wont, the very best there is in town.

The opening of this new retail liquor house was successful in every way and Tom lays all this success to the fact that he had up in one corner the very green flag of good old Ireland. Luckily, it was confined in a glass case, so that its folds could not wave in the air and excite the many Irishmen who called in at the saloon during the day and night.

Irishmen were not the only ones present. Every nationality was represented and a happy time was the result.

Everything was free and wines and liquors were distributed with an open hand, Duke McNicoll bossing operations behind the bar. Occupying a central position on the bar was a bowl of champagne punch which, although drawn on constantly, was yet ever full.

It is certain that Tom McTighe in supreme command, McNicoll behind the bar and Sidney Boyd at the lunch table, constitute a team that is hard to beat.

Hilo Jockey Club May be Formed

Hilo, May 29.—Arrangements are on foot to form a jockey club in this district and to take over the Hoolulu Park and hold race meetings there. This matter was started last year, but owing to a desire expressed by the Volcano Stables to hold the track the scheme was abandoned. Now it appears the stables company is willing to part with the track for $16,000, which is said to be about $8000 below the amount expended on it. If the jockey club can be formed and the shares subscribed the receipts of the Fourth of July events will be turned over to the club.—Herald.

Leonard Goes Up and Descends Safely

Hilo, May 29.—People to the number of several hundred were on Shipman street Tuesday afternoon watching Prof. Leonard inflate his balloon. Shortly before 6 o'clock he gave the order to let go and the big bag, with the parachute attachment to which the trapeze was hanging from a giddy height. When he cut loose from the balloon the parachute dropped about a hundred feet and then opened out gracefully and came down to the ground like a bird, landing in a taro patch near the jail. The ascension by Prof. Leonard were the best ever seen in Hawaii. He goes to Maui tomorrow.—Herald.

TEAM AGAINST MAUI.

Hilo, May 29.—The following are the probable ball players who will again show Maui on her own standing grounds how it is to be 1, 2 and 3—out.

E. M. Brown, p.; Ben Spalding, c.; Gus Supe, 1b.; W. Ragsdale, 2b.; Edward Colton, 3b.; H. T. Lake, ss.; T. M. Rowland, cf.; Kalewe, lf.; C. Keane, rf. Substitutes—H. Kalama and Henry Kaihale.—Herald.
